

Margaret MacPherson

Ms. Margaret MacPherson has a Master's degree in Theory and Criticism and a graduate diploma in Social Innovation. She has been leading social change projects on gender-based violence for the past seventeen years working at the local, regional, provincial, and national levels. At the heart of Ms. MacPherson's leadership is the notion that complexity need not overwhelm us, and that there are small everyday actions which anyone can take to help create a just society.